> PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Org-Min is a scientifically formulated glycine-chelated organic trace mineral supplement developed to meet the essential micro-mineral requirements of poultry. The chelated form ensures superior bioavailability and absorption while minimizing mineral antagonism in the gastrointestinal tract, resulting in more efficient utilization compared to conventional inorganic mineral sources.

Regular supplementation of Org-Min supports optimal growth, feed efficiency, immune function, and tissue mineralization in poultry. It plays a critical role in enzyme activation, metabolic processes, antioxidant defense, and overall physiological performance, making it suitable for routine use in broilers, layers, breeders, and other poultry species under intensive production systems.

- Trace mineral deficiency conditions
- Poor growth rate and low feed conversion ratio (FCR)
